

Physician Quality Improvement Cohort List (2018-2019)

Cohort 3 (2018-2019)

Name	Specialty	Location	Project Aim
Wilma Arruda	Pediatrics	Nanaimo	Standardize the process of pediatric referral and consultation services at Georgia Avenue Elementary School in collaboration with the school-based team
Joyce Coutts	Geriatric Medicine	Victoria	Increase familiarity of patients, families and care providers within Geriatric Specialty Services Outreach, with information specific to older adults experiencing problematic substance use
Dee Hoyano	Public Health	Victoria	Increase immunization coverage rates (all antigens) at 2 years of age at the Victoria Health Unit
Jennifer Kouwenberg	Pediatrics	Nanaimo	Increase successful rooming-in to support the mother-baby dyad through family centered care for opioid exposed babies born to medically stabilized mothers
Sarah Lea	Addictions Medicine	Victoria	Improve identification by 100% for pregnant women who use substances and who wish to access maternity and addiction care
Kathleen McFadden	Family Practice	Campbell River	Increase the number of frail elder patients 70+ with one acute illness who are sitting up to eat their meals
Jennifer Oates	Geriatric Psychiatry	Victoria	Increase the uptake of Geriatric Evaluation and Management (GEM) team recommendations
Julie Paget	Anesthesiology	Victoria	To create a system that permits identification of all anemic patients in Victoria scheduled for radical cystectomy with at least 21 days to optimize pre-operatively, by March 2020
Nisha Pillay	Pediatrics	Victoria	Improve the mother-baby dyad without compromising the care of the at risk newborns through the implementation of dextrose gel treatment
Chaundra Willms	Nurse Practitioner	Nanaimo	Prescription of blood and blood products by NPs and GPs in acute care: Identify gaps in competence/ training that lead to patient harm